Corkish Family Tree

4.1 JOHN KORKISH—1595

4.1.1 John Korkish (5634) was born circa 1595. He married Jane Taylor circa 1620.

4.1.2 Jane Taylor (5923) was born circa 1595. She married John Korkish circa 1620. She died in 1659-60. Her Will records her name as "Jane Taylor alias Korkish".

4.2 The Children of John Korkish & Jane Taylor

Number & Name		Type & Birthdate	Place/Notes
5635	Henry	C 1620	Rushen
5924	Jane	C 1622	Rushen
5925	Margaret	C 1624	Rushen
5926	Ann	C 1626	Rushen
5927	John	C 1628	Rushen
5628	Mary	C 1630	Rushen
5929	Catherine	C 1632	Rushen

NOTE: The birth order has not been established but it seems likely that Henry was the eldest son if not the eldest child. He appears to be the only married child at the death of his mother in 1659-60.

4.2.1 Henry Corkish (5635) was born circa 1620. He married Joney Maddrell circa 1650. He was buried at Rushen on the 11th of January, 1715.

His Will mentions his sons John, living in Kent, Henry (Harry) and Richard and his daughter Margaret, who was married to Thomas Gell, and her three children Margery, John and Joney

4.2.1.1 Joney Maddrell (5922) was born circa 1620. She married Henry Corkish circa 1650. She died in the last quarter of 1699.

The name of her father has not been identified but her mother appears to have been Jane Corkish. She was mentioned in the Will of her mother-in-law, Jane Taylor, above. Her Will mentions her children Richard, Margaret, Joney and John, her grandson Thomas Watterson, her brother John, a Kathrin Qualtrough and a Chris: Karran.

5641	Joney	C 1648	Rushen
5938	Richard	C 1650	Rushen
5639	Jane	C 1652	Rushen
5640	Margaret	C 1654	Rushen
5630	Henry	C 1660	Rushen

Note: The birth order has not been established, it is known that John was alive in 1660.

4.3.1 Henry Corkish (5930) was born circa 1660. He was not mentioned in the Will of his grandmother, Jane Taylor, in February 1659-60, which could imply that he was probably not yet born. Alternatively if he was the eldest son and presumed heir of the family farm no separate provision would be made in the Will.

A marriage has not yet been identified but he is thought to have had at least one son.

- 4.5.1 John Corkish (1076) was born in the parish of Rushen circa 1700, He married Isabel Costain (1078) on the 16th of December, 1732 at Rushen. This was a second marriage for Isabel. Of the seven children born to this marriage, only one, Henry, survived to adulthood. John died in 1775 and was buried at Rushen on the 27th of August.

- 4.5.2 Isabel Costain (1078) was born in approximately 1710, probably in Arbory. She was the daughter of William Costain (1077) a farmer of Ballachrink, Arbory. She married firstly Henry Lowey (1122) and secondly John Corkish on the 16th of December, 1732, at Rushen. She died in 1747 and was buried on the 3rd of May at Rushen.

- 4.7.1 John Corkish (255) was baptized on the 22nd of June, 1772, at Rushen. He died in infancy and was buried on the 11th of November, 1772, at Rushen.
- 4.7.2 Patrick Corkish (256) was baptized on the 29th of September, 1773, at Rushen. He died in infancy and was buried on the 16th of July, 1794, at Rushen.
- 4.7.3 Henry Corkish (257) was baptized on the 6th of March, 1776, at Rushen. He died in infancy and was buried on the 17th of April, 1776, at Rushen.
- 4.7.4 Christopher Corkish (258) was baptized on the 11th of May, 1777, at Rushen. At the 1851 census he was farming eight acres at Surby. He married firstly Esther Shimmin on the 3rd of December, 1805, at Rushen, and secondly Catherine Harrison on the 31 of October, 1837, at Rushen. He died in 1855 and was buried on the 30th of June at Rushen. See Volume IV for further details.
- 4.7.5 Jane Corkish (259) was baptized on the 12th of March, 1780, at Rushen. She married John Costean on the 23rd of August, 1800, at Arbory. She died in 1846 and was buried on the 20th of June at Arbory when her age was given as sixty-six years. See Volume IV for further details.
- 4.7.6 Margaret Corkish (260) was baptized on the 15th of December, 1782, at Rushen. She married John Woods on the 21 of September, 1809, at Rushen. The census of 1851 shows her as a widow aged sixty-seven years, living in School Lane, Castletown, on parish relief. She was buried on the 14th of May, 1854, at Arbory when her age was given as seventy-one years. See Volume IV for further details.
- 4.7.7 William Corkish (212) was baptized at Rushen Parish Church on the 23rd of November, 1788. He was confirmed on the 10th of August, 1803 at Malew Church by Bishop Creggan. He was a miner and married twice; first to Margaret Parks on the 18th of August, 1810, at Malew, and secondly to Isabella Simpson on the 4th of September, 1841, at Santan. He died in 1853 and was buried on the 28th of April at Rushen.

Sometime between 1816 and 1821 the family moved to the parish of Marown and it was here in 1833 that Margaret died. She was buried at Marown on the 26th of December.

William Corkish, of the parish of Marown, was married for the second time on the 4th of September, 1841 at Santan Church to Isabella Simpson. William is described as a Widower of the Parish of Marown and Elizabeth is described as a Spinster of the Parish of Santan. Both made their marks. The witnesses were John Clarke (who made his mark) and Samuel Taggart. In 1851 William is still working at the Foxdale Lead Mines and living at Eairy with his wife and children. At times William has been described as a shoemaker, e.g., at the marriage of his son, John, in 1864. It was quite common for miners to have a second job. The choice of occupational description may reflect the actual economic conditions at the time. After his death in April 1853 Isabella and her son Robert Corkish (268) continue living at the same cottage. Robert is employed at the mines in Foxdale and Isabella is farming six acres.

4.7.7.1 Margaret Parks (213) was born circa 1789. She married William Corkish on the 18th of August, 1810, at Malew. She died in 1833 and was buried at Marown on the 26th of December.

4.7.7.2 Isabella Simpson (246) was born circa 1803. She married William Corkish on the 4th of September, 1841, at Santan. She was buried at Marown on the 1st of January, 1874, when her age was recorded as 70 years.

In 1841 she was living at Balla Harrison, Santan, with Robert Simpson, 70, her father ? Jane aged 9 was also living with the family, possible a niece to Isablla. In 1851 she was living with her family at Eairy Kellag, Marown. In 1861 she was living in Marown in a cottage on Eirey Kiley. She was a widow and farming 6 acres. Her unmarried children Robert and Isabella were living with her.

4.7.7.2.1 Margaret Kinnish (7259) was born circa 1838 at Santan, probaly the illegitimatedaughter of Isabella. A baptism has not been found. In 1841 she was living in the Robert Simpson household. In 1851 she was living with Isabella and her family at Eary Kellag, Marown. In 1861 she was working as an house servant to Woodthorp Clark at Coilingil, Marown.

4.7.8 Elizabeth Corkish (262) was baptized on the 16th of January, 1792, at Rushen. She married Henry Taylor on the 19th of June, 1823, at Rushen. By early 1851 she was a widow, living in Surby and working as a farm labourer. There is a burial for Elizabeth Taylor of Surby aged 68 years on the 21 of July, 1858, at Rushen. See "The Corkish Family" for further details.

4.8 The Children of William Corkish & Margaret Parks

Number & Name	Type & Birth date	Place/Notes
263 Catherine Ann	B 8th Sep 1811	Braddan
264 Charles	B 14th Nov 1813	Braddan
265 William	B 19th May 1816	Braddan

266 Samnuel	B 12th Oct 1823	Marown
2099 Henry	C 1829
267 Daniel	C 1829

- 4.8.1 Catherine Ann Corkish (263) was baptized on the 8th of September, 1811 at Braddan. She married Hubertius Dubois on the 23rd of December, 1843, at Braddan. See
- 4.8.2 Charles Corkish (264) was baptized on the 14th of November, 1813 at Braddan. At the census of 1841 he was living at Ballanicholas, Marown, and was described as 25 years old labourer. He has not been found in the census for 1851 or 1861 but there is a burial for Charles Corkish aged 52 years of Dalby, Patrick, recorded at Rushen on the 22nd of August, 1866. It seems likely that Charles left the Island before 1851 (possibly for work in England) and either returned after the census of 1861 or requested that he be buried in his homeland.
- 4.8.3 William Corkish (265) was baptized on the 19th of May, 1816 at Braddan. He did not survive infancy and was buried on the 26th of April, 1817, at Braddan.
- 4.8.4 William Corkish (2098) was baptized on the 3rd of January, 1819 at Braddan. He married Elizabeth Cubbon on the 21 of November, 1839, at Arbory. He was buried on the 9th of March, 1879, at Arbory, when his age was given as sixty-three years. See Volume IV for further details.
- 4.8.5 John Corkish (197) was baptized on the 5th of August, 1821 at Marown. The census of 1851, 1861 and 1871 seem to consistently place his year of birth as 1825/6. If, as stated, he was eighty-five years old at his death in 1905, his year of birth would have been 1819/20. This five year discrepancy has not yet been resolved.

He married two sisters, Elizabeth and Mary McGhee. Although this was strictly illegal, it was a fairly common practice.

He married Elizabeth Magee at KK Braddan on the 21 of January, 1850, by licence. At this time he is described as a weaver and was probably employed at Union Mills Woollen Mill. He was residing in Bigwell Street. By the time of the 1851 census, John and Elizabeth are living at Ballacaine, Onchan, where their first child is born. John is again described as a weaver and is presumably working at the Bowring Mill, which was situated on Ballacain. By December, 1852, the family was living in Douglas where their second son was born and John is still described as a weaver. By November, 1855 John had left the weaving trade and is now employed as a labourer at the Howe farm. At the census in 1861 he and his family were living in Strand Street, Douglas. In July, 1861, at the birth of Frederick, the family is living at Millmount in Braddan. The family address is once again in Douglas by December, 1863 when Elizabeth dies. The movement of the family and the changes in John's occupation probably reflect the vagaries of the weaving trade.

In 1864 John is once again employed at the Howe farm, his address when he marries Mary McGhee. The 1871 census shows him living at 46, South Quay, Douglas, and he is described as a labourer, presumably working at the Howe farm. Mary is not listed with the family. As she was six or seven months pregnant she may have been staying with her parents. However, an Ann McGhie, a dyers assistant aged thirty-seven years, is listed and is probably a younger sister to Mary.

John died on the 24th of January, 1905 and is buried at Kirk Braddan, where he is noted as being aged eight-five years at his death.

- 4.8.5.1 Elizabeth Magee (198) was born in approximately 1828. She married John Corkish (197) on the 21 of January, 1850, at which time she was living at Strang. She died on the 29th of December, 1863 in Douglas, aged thirty-four years.

- 4.8.5.2 Mary McGhee (199) was born in about 1834 at Braddan. She married John Corkish (197) on the 25th of September, 1864 after the death of her sister Elizabeth. She died on the 29th of July, 1906, aged seventy-two years.
- 4.8.6 Samuel Corkish (266) was baptized on the 12th of October, 1823 at Marown. He is listed in the 1851 census as a Farm Labourer, aged twenty-four and residing at Kirby Cottage, Braddan. He married Agnes Gilleland on the 24th of December, 1859, at Braddan. The census of 1861, when he is described as a joiner, shows him living with his mother-in-law, Margaret a widow aged 60 and her family. He had died by the census of 1861. See See "The Corkish Family" for further details.
- 4.8.7 Henry Corkish (2099) is assumed to have been born in January, 1829. There is a burial for Henry, son of William & Margaret Parks on the 30th of January, 1829, at Braddan. No age is given so it is assumed to be an infant burial.
- 4.8.8 Daniel Corkish (267) is listed in the 1841 census for Eairy Kellag. He appears to be living with his widowed father, William (212) and his elder brother, William (265). Daniel is listed as being twelve years of age, which would make his year of birth 1829, and this is confirmed by the 1851 census. No baptismal record has been found.

- 4.9.1 William Corkish (207) was baptized on the 27th of April, 1851 at Onchan. No further details are available.
- 4.9.2 Henry Corkish (50) was baptized on the 5th of December, 1852 at Braddan. He married Elizabeth Garret by Banns on the 22nd of December, 1873 at the Parish Church of Liverpool. At the time of the marriage both parties gave their address as Hopwood Street, were of full age and signed the register. Henry is described as a bachelor and Fireman, the son of John Corkish, a Labourer.
- 4.9.2.1 Elizabeth Garrett (108) was born in 1852, the daughter of Daniel Garrett, a coachmen. She married Henry Corkish on the 22nd of December, 1873, in Liverpool.
- 4.9.3 Elizabeth Corkish (247) was born in approximately 1854. No further details are available.
- 4.9.4 John Corkish (208) was baptized on the 4th of November, 1855. No further details are available.
- 4.9.5 Mary Ann Corkish (248) was born in March, 1857. She died in May, 1857, aged two months.
- 4.9.6 Thomas Daniel Corkish (249) was born in approximately 1858. He probably died before 1865 when the second Thomas (218) was born.

- 4.9.7 Frederick Corkish (209) was baptized on the 14th of July, 1861. No further details are available.

4.10 The Children of Henry Corkish & Elizabeth Garrett

Number & Name		Type & Birthdate		Place/Notes
116	William	C	1874	Liverpool
200	Elizabeth	C	1875	Liverpool
120	Sarah	C	1876	Liverpool
201	Mary	C	1878	Douglas
49	Robert Henry	A	21st Jun 1880	Douglas

- 4.10.1 William Corkish (116) was probably born in 1874 in Liverpool. He married Annie Cowan (117) in approximately 1898. They had two daughters: Eva Corkish and May Corkish. No further details are available.

- 4.10.1.1 Eva Corkish (118) was born in approximately 1899. She married ... Black and has two daughters, Dorothy and Linda.

Dorothy married ... Convery, a ship's engineer on the manx boats, and has three or four children. The family lives in Hilary Park, Douglas.

Linda married and has a son and a daughter. The daughter is believed to have died suddenly from asthma in approximately 1985 aged about seventeen years. Linda is believed to live in Onchan.

- 4.10.1.2 Mae Corkish (119) was born in approximately 1900. She married William Kelly, a well known manx distance runner. They had one daughter, Doreen. May died in November 1993. No further details are available.

- 4.10.2 Elizabeth E. Corkish (200) was born in approximately 1875 in Liverpool. No further details are available.

- 4.10.3 Sarah Corkish (120) was born in approximately 1876, probably in Liverpool. No further details are available.

- 4.10.4 Mary Corkish (201) was born in approximately 1878, in Douglas. No further details are available.

- 4.10.5 Robert Henry Corkish (49) was born on the 21 of June, 1880. He married Agnes Carney at St. George's Church, Douglas, on the 7th of September, 1901, at which time he gave his address as 2, Athol Square. He is described as a bachelor and a mason. His age is given as twenty-one years. His father is named as Henry Corkish, Labourer. The witnesses were John Henry Crennell and Isabella Carney, the bride's sister.

Robert emigrated to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada before the First World War (the exact date has not been established 1913?). Robert lived for a time with Tommy Johnson, his brother-in-law (Tommy married Isabella Carney, Agnes' sister) though it is not certain that Robert and Tommy emigrated together.

On the 29th of July, 1915 he enlisted in the 65thh Overseas Battalion in Saskatoon. His regimental number was 472145 and his occupation being recorded as bricklayer. After training, he embarked on 20th of June, 1916 on the S.S. Empress of Britain, disembarking on the 28th of June. He was transferred to the 44th Battalion at Bramshott. On the 28th of November, 1916 he was transferred to France where he served with the 44th Battalion until April 1919 when he was moved to Ripon prior to being returned to Canada. During his time in France he twice served temporary assignments with the 10th Field Company, Canadian Engineers. He also attended a training course for batmen in July 1917 and was granted ten days leave in November of 1917. He was demobilised in Halifax, N.S. on the 18th of July, 1919, at which time his address is given as West Pugwash, N.S. and his trade is recorded as 'Farmer'. As a returning Canadian Veteran he was able to bring his family to Canada in the summer of 1919, only his recently married, eldest daughter, Catherine Elizabeth Corkish, remaining in the Isle of Man. The family settled in Pugwash, Nova Scotia.

Robert worked as a mason. He built the first brick house in Pugwash (was this the unfinished house he brought his family to and which his sons helped to finish?). In 1927 while working at the Doctor's house some scaffolding gave way and he suffered a bad fall. The resulting serious back injuries prevented any further work. He died in Pugwash, Nova Scotia, on the 11th May, 1934. The family home was rented out when Agnes moved to Ontario with the four youngest children, living for a while with her eldest son James. Agnes returned to the Isle of Man with the four youngest children in May, 1936 and the family home was sold some time later when the problems of renting it out from such a distance became too great.

- 4.10.6 A Sa(u)nders Corkish, one of two brothers, is believed to be the son of Elizabeth, Sarah or Mary Corkish (above). He is believed to have been born in approximately 1920. A son is thought to have emigrated to Canada in approximately 1960, and he is believed to have married, divorced, remarried and to be residing in British Columbia. This all has to be confirmed.

- 4.11.1 Catherine Elizabeth Corkish (27) was born on the 23rd of November, 1901 at 10, Nelson Street, Douglas. She married William James Kinrade (29) on the 31 of July, 1918 at St. George's Church, Douglas. She remained on the Isle of Man when her parents, brothers and sisters emigrated to Canada in 1919. After the death of her husband, Jimmy (29), in March 1941, Catherine worked as a Cook in the NAAFI at Jurby aerodrome. She emigrated to Canada in April 1949. Intending to settle in Ontario with her son Robert Kinrade (18), she actually continued on to British Columbia where her brothers Bobby (61) and Danny (62) and her sisters Nelly (59) and Peggy (66) were residing. She worked for a time in a salmon canning factory at Alert Bay. She married a second time on the 5th of December, 1956 to Alphonse LeMay (280), at Whalley, B.C. There were no issue of this second marriage. She died on the 28th of December, 1982 in a nursing home in Vancouver. She was cremated and her ashes buried in February 1983 with her father in Pugwash, Nova Scotia.

- 4.II.1.1 Alphonse LeMay (280) was born in 1898 at St. Eduard, Quebec, the son of Tebophere LeMay and May Boucher.

[Possible son?] Bobby worked in the construction trade, living for some time at Kitimat, B.C., during the building of the aluminium smelters. He was an expert woodworker, producing many pieces of furniture for the family, mainly in cedar. Lost an eye ...? Like so many men in the construction and logging industries, Bobby alternated between periods of hard work in the camps and short sprees in the town where his hard earned money rapidly disappeared into beer. He spent the later years of his life in the Skid Road area of Vancouver. He died on the 27th of August, 1973.
- 4.II.6 Daniel John Corkish (62) was born on the 17th of August, 1910, at 4, Athol Square, off Shaw's Brow, Douglas. When just nine years old, he moved to Pugwash, N.S. with his family. On the death of his father the family home was left to Danny on the understanding that he assume the responsibility of looking after his mother and younger sisters. When his mother decided to return to the Isle of Man in May 1936, Danny accompanied her and his three youngest sisters. For a while the family home in Pugwash was rented out through Mr. and Mrs. White, friends and neighbours. Eventually the problem of maintaining the home from the Isle of Man became too great so the house was sold and the proceeds given to Agnes. In 1993 the daughter, Laura White, was still living in Pugwash and was visited by Danny when he took his sister Catherine's ashes for burial with their father.

Danny commenced training as a nurse at Cumberland Hospital, completing his training the Braddan Hospital, he met his future wife Jane Elizabeth Bostock (Kermeen) (161), Jenny, who was also training as a nurse. They married on the 13th of November, 1937, at St. George's, Douglas. Archdeacon Stockwell officiated. They lived at Foxdale until the outbreak of war, when Daniel joined the Medical Corps, reaching the rank of Staff Sergeant. He was serving in Iraq when his mother became ill. Although granted leave, unfortunately he was not able to get home before his mother died.

After the war they bought a house in Standish, Wigan, Lancashire, where their two children were born: David John Corkish and Graham Michael Corkish. The family emigrated to Canada in 1949, initially settling in Steveston, B.C. with Nellie (59) and her husband Dan Morrison (158) who owned a seiner. They first bought a house on East 51 Avenue in Vancouver. They eventually moved to Raven Place, Surrey and, when the home became too large for their needs, to an apartment in Richmond where Danny died on the 23rd of May, 1989.
