

The North

I.1 Description

The parishes of Andreas, Bride and Jurby are mainly flat farming land with the hills of North Barrel running along the eastern side of the parishes. The parish of Maughold is more hilly, with steep cliffs along the sea boundary.

The town of Ramsey is situated at the mouth of the Sulby river in a wide, sandy bay at the boundary of Maughold and Lezayre. It has been a centre for fishing and boat building from early times. The hills of Cumberland are visible on clear days.

The parish of Bride contains the Ayre, a wide, flat expanse of sand and gravel. The gravel seashore is prone to erosion and the high-water mark has changed considerably over the years. Andreas and Jurby are more fertile, farming country.

I.2 Origins

I.2.1 The name Lawson is a patronymic of Law i.e., it designates someone who is the "son of Law".

Law is probably a topographical name from the Old English hlaw, meaning a hill. This would give us "someone who is the son of he who lives on or near the hill".

A possible alternative derivation is that Law is a Middle English pet name for Lawrence, which in turn is derived from the Middle English given name of Lorens or from the Old French name of Lawrence. Both these names designate a person from the Italian town of Laurentium, named for its laurel or bay trees.

I.2.2 The name is common throughout northern England and Scotland. The heaviest concentrations are in Yorkshire and Lancashire. The earliest known reference is at Littondale, Upper Wharfedale, Yorkshire in the 14th century.

1.3 Early Days

Persistent family rumours or legends insist that the family originated in Scotland. No corroboration has yet been found for these stories, nor has their source been traced. If the stories are true, a possible candidate for the first Lawson on the Isle of Man is James Lowsone who was baptized on the 27th of February, 1568, at Perth, the son of Robert Lowsone. The source of this information is the IGI and no research has been conducted.

The earliest documents that have been found on the Isle of Man for the Lawson family are the wills of James Lawson (322), his wife Isabel Cowle (323) and Richard Lawson (618).

From these documents we know that Isabel, the wife of James Lawson, died on the 8th of January, 1627-8, that her maiden name was Cowle and that at the time of her death she had two unmarried children, Robert (619) and Edward (620). There may have been other, unnamed, married children, most likely Richard (618).

James Lawson died on the 5th of June, 1634, some six years after Isabel. However, his Will mentions "unmarried children by the later wife" and that "ye mother refuse to take administration in the behalf of the children." which indicates that his wife was still alive and that there were minor children. The most likely explanation of these documents is that James remarried after the death of Isabel, probably in 1628 or 1629, and that there were children of this second marriage. So far the second marriage has not been traced and only one child has been identified. Research has been limited to the Island, though it is possible that the second marriage took place off the Island.

Richard Lawson in his Will of 1654 names his children Anthony, James and Ellin. The three children are named executors. As no Supervisors were appointed for the children it would appear that they were all of age, i.e., that youngest was probably at least fourteen. This means that Richard was probably born no later than 1612 and married no later than 1635. These dates could be very much earlier. As no records of any other Lawson families have been found it is likely that Richard was a son of James.

Ewan Curghey, a witness to the Richard's Will and a pledge for his inventory, was the husband of Katherine Lawson, see 1.47.2.1.

If Richard Lawson was the son of James and Isabel Cowle, then he was probably married by January, 1627-8, as he is not named as an unmarried child in Isabel's Will. This means that he was probably born before 1607. For the time being it is assumed that Richard was the eldest son of James and Isabel Cowle and that he was born circa 1603.

Assuming that marriage of James and Isabel occurred shortly before the birth of the first child and when both parties were of full age, it is calculated that James and Isabel would have been born in approximately 1580 and married in approximately 1602.

No records of these events have been found and the calculated dates given here could well be out by ten years either way.

I.4 The First Manx Lawson

I.4.1 James Lawson (322) was born circa 1570 in northern England or Scotland. He moved to the Isle of Man as a young man, settling in Ramsey. He married twice, first to Isabel Cowle circa 1605 and secondly circa 1628 to an unidentified person. He was buried at Bride on the 6th of June, 1634. See 1.5 and 1.47 for details of his descendants.

I.4.2 Isabel Cowle (323) would have been born in approximately 1580. She died on the 8th of January, 1627–8. Nothing is known of the parents of Isabel Cowle, however, in the light of the fact that her grandson, Richard (311), was the miller at Lhen Mooar (see 1.17.1 below) it is interesting to note that the wife of Marghad McCowle is listed as the tenant of the mill at Alia Altadale (Lezayre) in the Manorial Roll of 1511-15. See 1.5 for details of her descendants.

I.4.3 The as yet unidentified second wife of James, (1718), was born probably around 1600, maybe in Douglas. It is believed that her christian name may have been Isabel. She married James Lawson circa 1628, but no other details of her life have, as yet, been verified. See 1.47 for details of her descendants.

Birth or christening records for the children have not yet been found. Considering that they were all married in Andreas, it is likely that the family lived in Andreas, probably at The Lhen.

I.4.4 There was a burial at Andreas on the 8th of November, 1663, of Catherine Lawson, orphan. This indicates that at least one parent was dead. See also 1.47.2

619	Robert	C 1605	Maughold?
620	Edward	C 1607	Maughold?. Died 1668

I.5.1 Richard Lawson (618) was born circa 1603. From his Will in 1654 we know that he had at least three children, Anthony, Ellin and James, while Ellin's Will of 1669 mentions her brother Anthony and her sister Ann Lawson. The name of Richard's wife is not known. See 1.6 for further details of his descendants.

I.5.2 Robert Lawson (619) was born circa 1605. He is named as an unmarried child in his mother's Will of January, 1627–8. Robert is believed to have married circa 1640, though the name of his wife has not yet be determined, and to have had at least one son. In all likelihood he was the ancestor of the Lonan branch. See 4.2 for further details.

I.5.3 Edward Lawson (620) was born circa 1607. He is named as an unmarried child in his mother's Will of January, 1627–8. He married Jony Christian in approximately 1628 at Andreas. The dates for these events have not been confirmed. Edward's occupation has not been determined. He died at Lezayre in 1668. See 1.17 for details of his descendants.

The Bishop's Court of the 11th of January, 1637, held at Jurby, records the divorce of William Gawen and Ann Kellie (1888). Ann was accused of adultery with Edward Lawson of Andreas, by whom she had two children. She also had a third child by Thomas Kellie of Jurby. One of these children appears to have been John Lawson who was baptized on the 9th of January, 1631–2, at Jurby “the bastard son of Edward”.

- I.5.3.1 Jony Christian (621) was born circa 1610. Nothing is known of Jony’s parents. Considering that her grandson Edward became the miller at Lhen Mooar, it is interesting to note that a John McCristen was the miller at Breryk and Altadale in 1515. She died on the 26th of April, 1670. See 1.17 for details of her descendants.

- I.6.1 James Lawson (411) was born circa 1630. He was a miller at Andreas. He is named executor in his father’s Will of 1654 but there were no bequests. He married in 1684. His wife has not been positively identified. He died in 1712
- I.6.2 Ellin Lawson (623) was born circa 1632. She is named executrix in her father’s Will of 1654. She inherited 6 sheep and, at the discretion of the executors, a small heifer. She married John Garrett at a date not yet determined. In her Will she made bequests to her brother Anthony Lawson and to her sister Ann Lawson. Her husband was instructed to give what he wished to the Minister and his wife. It would appear that there were no issue of the marriage. She died in 1669 at Lezayre.
- I.6.2.1 John Garrett (1891) was born circa 1630. He married Ellin Lawson circa 1655, probably at Lezayre. He was alive in 1669. It is not known if he was any relation to Alice Garret (671) below.
- I.6.3 Anthony Lawson (622) was born circa 1634. He is named executor in his father’s Will of 1654 and is left part of a colt, it not being specified where the remainder is to go. He married Alice Garrett on the 29th of January, 1678–9, at Andreas. He was a beneficiary under his sister Ellin’s Will of 1669. Anthony was buried on the 21st of March, 1685–86 at Andreas. See 1.7 for details of his descendants.
- I.6.3.1 Alice Garrett (671) was born circa 1650. She married Anthony Lawson on the 29th of January, 1678–9, at Andreas. See 1.7 for details of her descendants. It is not known if she was any relation to John Garret (1891) above.
- I.6.4 Ann Lawson (2244) was born circa 1636. She was mentioned in the Will of her sister Ellin in 1669.

- I.7.1 Edward (Ned) Lawson (1265) was baptized on the 23rd of March, 1679–80, at Andreas. He married Ann Crinnel circa 1700 probably at Andreas. He was buried on the 21st of August, 1736, at Andreas. See 1.8 for details of his descendants.

Edward served on the Sheading jury in November, 1701. The record of the confirmation of his son, Richard, in 1718 tells us that Edward was a miller.

In September, 1728, Edward and his wife Ann Crinnel entered into a marriage contract with Elinor Cowle on behalf of their son Edward. This contract was accepted as their Will in 1736.

- I.7.1.1 Ann Crinnel (1576) was born circa 1680, probably in Andreas. She married Edward Lawson circa 1700 at Andreas. She was buried on the 12th of June, 1728, at Jurby. See 1.8 for details of her descendants.

In December, 1717, Ann Lawson alias Crenil was one of the witnesses to the Will of Margaret Kneal.

The IGI shows that Ann daughter of Thomas Crenil was baptized August, 1676, at Andreas.

- I.7.2 James Lawson (1266) was baptized on the 28th of March, 1686, at Andreas, a week after the death of his father. He married Margaret Cowle on the 3rd of June, 1716, at Andreas. James was buried at Andreas on the 29th of January, 1723-4. See 1.10 for details of his descendants.

In 1718 Thomas Kneal successfully sued John Cormode and his son Thomas together with James Lawson and Margaret his wife, for a "a parcell called Creg-ne-Hardy".

- I.7.2.1 Margaret Cormode (1442) was born circa 1688. The daughter of John Cormode, she had a brother, Thomas. Margaret married firstly James Lawson on the 3rd of June, 1716, and secondly John Cowle on the 11th of May, 1725, at Andreas. Margaret was buried on the 5th of November, 1755, at Andreas, where the Burial Register records her name as Margaret Cowle als Lawson als Cormoad. See for details of her descendants.

- I.8.1 Edward (Ned junior) Lawson (1267) was born circa 1701 at Andreas. He married Elinor Cowle on the 2nd of October, 1725, at Andreas. He was buried at Andreas on the 7th of August, 1744. See 1.9 for details of his descendants.

- I.8.1.1 Elinor Cowle (1269) was born circa 1710, probably in Andreas. There is a burial record for an Elinor Lawson at Arbory on the 7th of September, 1771. See 1.9 for details of her descendants.

In September, 1728, she entered into a marriage contract in her own behalf with Edward Lawson and his wife Ann Crinnel (see 1.7.1 above). No mention is made of her parents who are presumed to have died by that date.

1.8.2 Richard Lawson (1581) was baptized in August 1703 at Andreas. He was confirmed in 1718 at Andreas. At the death of his father in 1736 the court noted that he had received a marriage contract. This has not yet been found.

1.8.3 William Lawson (1268) was baptized on the 5th of March, 1704-5, at Andreas. William was the first member of the family to move to the south of the Island where he married Mary Kneen on the 1st of August, 1734, at Arbory. He died in Malew but was buried at Andreas on 10th of December, 1740.

There were no issue of the marriage. His Will mentions Catherine and Mary Christian who were possibly sisters-in-law to his wife from her first marriage. The marriage contract of his brother Edward in September, 1728, makes provision for a legacy of 37s on the death of the longer liver of his parents.

1.8.3.1 Mary Kneen (1583) was born circa 1705. She married William Lawson on the 1st of August, 1734, at Arbory. This was possibly a second marriage for her Will mentions a son John Christian. She was buried on the 6th of September, 1740, at Malew.

1.8.4 John Lawson (1270) was baptized on the 5th of April, 1707, at Andreas. No provision is made for him in the marriage contract of his brother Edward. He is presumed to have died in childhood from smallpox as there is a burial at Andreas on the 2nd of February, 1713-14, of a child of Edward.

1.8.5 Bahee Lawson (5977) was born circa 1709. No baptism has been found but she is mentioned as having a received a marriage contract in the decree issued on the death of her father in 1736.

1.8.6 Ann Lawson (5978) was born circa 1711. No baptism has been found but she is mentioned as having a received a marriage contract in the decree issued on the death of her father in 1736

1.9.1 Edward Lawson (1584) was baptized at Andreas on the 8th of September, 1726. In April of 1750, when he is described as of the parish of Andreas, he sold to Daniel Kaneen some Intack land known as Croft-ny-Cabbagy. The selling price was £20, half of which was paid immediately and the remainder to be paid on the death of his mother. In October of 1750 Edward acknowledges receipt of the full sum of £20 though his mother, Elinor Cowle, did not die until 1771. He married Elinor Skelly (see 2.2.2.1) on the 28th of July, 1750, at Rushen. At the death of his father in 1744, he made over his part of the inheritance to his mother so that she could bring up his younger brother, John, then aged nine years. The deed was to last until John became fourteen. He was buried on the 11th of May, 1806, at Rushen. See 2.3 for details of his descendants.

1.9.2 Margaret Lawson (1585) was baptized on the 15th of April, 1728, at Andreas. She was buried on the 23rd of May, 1728, at Andreas.

- 1.10.1 Margaret Lawson (1443) is believed to have been the eldest child. No further details available.
- 1.10.2 Anthony Lawson (1025) was born circa 1719 at Andreas. He married his third cousin once removed, Joney Lawson (see 5.3.1), on the 25th of October, 1748, at Braddan. He was buried on the 31st of March, 1792, at Braddan. See 5.4 for details of his descendants.
- He received lands as heirship under the Will of his father in 1724.
- 1.10.3 John Lawson (1444) was baptized at Andreas on the 2nd of February, 1720-1. He married Bahee Sayle (see 17.4.3) on the 4th of February, 1743-4, at Andreas. In May of 1794 John and Bahee made an agreement leaving everything to the longer liver of the two. In July of 1794 this agreement was accepted as John's Will. He was buried at Andreas on the 23rd of March, 1794. See 1.11 for details of his descendants.
- 1.10.4 Richard Lawson (1445) was born circa 1723 at Andreas. No further details are available.
- 1.10.5 David Lawson (1446) was born circa 1725 at Andreas. On the 15th of July, 1769, a David Lawson was employed on Boon work in the cleaning of the Lhen Trench for the Intack. No further details are available.

A document in the Manx Museum (MS BH4618C) gives a list of those men who performed boon work cleaning the Lhen Trench during the summer of 1769. Besides the names of the men, the property incurring the boon is listed together with the amount of time spent on the work. Among those listed is David Lawson who was employed for one day on the 15th July, for his intack. This David has not yet been positively identified but was most likely (1446) as the other possibility is (617) who would have been 76 years old in 1769, see 1.19.6.

I. I I. I Joney Lawson (1791) was baptized on the 29th of November, 1743, at Andreas. She married William Callow on the 22nd of April, 1769, at Maughold. It would appear that the family was living in Ramsey. She died intestate and was buried on the 30th of January, 1795, at Maughold. See 1.12 for details of her descendants.

Her children benefitted under the Will of their grand-mother, Bahee Sayle.

I. I I. 2 Alice Lawson (1792) was born circa 1748 at Andreas. She married Patrick Kneale on the 1st of November, 1777, at Andreas. She was buried on the 26th of October, 1827, at Andreas. See 1.13 for details of her descendants.

I. I I. 2. I Patrick Kneale (1799) was born circa 1748 at Andreas. He married Alice Lawson on the 1st of November, 1777, at Andreas. He was buried on the 7th of March, 1805, at Andreas. See 1.13 for details of his descendants.

I. I I. 3 Isabel Lawson (1793) was baptized on the 20th of January, 1750, at Andreas. She married Isaac Redhead on the 19th of September, 1779, at Andreas. She was buried at Andreas on the 16th of July, 1786. See 1.14 for details of her descendants.

It is likely that she died as a result of complications following childbirth and that her son Isaac died shortly after birth. Her surviving children benefitted under the Will of their grand-mother, Bahee Sayle.

I. I I. 3. I Isaac Redhead (4905) was born circa 1750, the son of Robert Redhead. He married firstly Isabel Lawson on the 19th of September, 1779, at Andreas and secondly Mary Kneale on the 10th of June, 1788, at Andreas. See 1.14 and 1.15 for details of his descendants.

I. I I. 6 Esther Lawson (1796) was baptized on the 14th of April, 1759, at Andreas. No further details are available.

I. I I. 7 John Lawson (1797) was baptized on the 28th of February, 1761, at Andreas. He married Jane Cleator on the 31st of January, 1792, at Andreas, see Volume IV, 12.2.1. He drowned after falling overboard while fishing on the 4th of July, 1798. At a Chapter court held in June of 1799 claims against his estate amounted to £36–19–9 plus £4–12–11 Court costs while the value of his assets amounted to £24–4–4. See 1.16 for details of his descendants.

His children benefitted under the Will of thier grand-mother, Bahee Sayle.

1807 Esther	B 20 th May 1798	Andreas

- I.16.1 John Lawson (1804) was baptized on the 10th of December, 1792, at Andreas. Not mentioned in his father's Will of 1799. Beneficiary under the Will of his grand-mother, Bahee Sayle.
- I.16.2 Ann Lawson (1805) was baptized on the 17th of November, 1793, at Andreas. She married Samuel Veale on the 31st of March, 1821, at Andreas, see 9.14.2. She was buried on the 1st of March, 1873, at Ballaugh. See 9.15 for details of her descendants.
- She was a beneficiary under the Will of her grand-mother, Bahee Sayle. At the census of 1841, she is living at Crauyn, Ballaugh, and is described as spinning. Her children are living with her. Samuel has not been found in the census of 1841, but if he was a fisherman this would not be unusual. In 1851, by this time a widow, she was living at Dollagh, Ballaugh, when she was earning her living as a washerwoman. In 1861 Ann was still living at Ballaugh with her unmarried son, William, a fisherman. In 1871 she was living at Crauyn, Ballaugh, with her unmarried son, John.
- I.16.3 James Lawson (1806) was baptized on the 2nd of March, 1796, at Andreas. Not mentioned in his father's Will of 1799. He possibly emigrated to the USA, showing up in the 1880 census for Dodge, Wisconsin, aged 84, with his wife, Ellen aged 80 from the Isle of Man, and grand-daughter, Nelly Gould aged 14 from the Isle of Man.

- I.16.4 Esther Lawson (1807) was baptized on the 20th of May, 1798, at Andreas. She is mentioned in her father's Will of 1799. There is a burial for an Esther recorded at Andreas on the 9th of June, 1799.

I.17 The Children of Edward Lawson & Jony Christian

continued from 1.5.3 and 1.5.3.1, FGF 100.

Edward had two illegitimate children by Alice Kelly. So far, only one of these children has been identified.

John Lawson (624) was baptized at Jurby on the 9th of January, 1631, when the register entry reads "bastard son of Edward". No further details are available.

- I.17.1 Richard Lawson (311) was born circa 1635. He married Bahee Kewn on the 1st of July, 1656, at Jurby Church. The witness's names are not given, but both parties are of Jurby parish. Richard's name was given as Ric. Losson. Richard was the miller at Lhen Mooar, Andreas, at the time of his marriage. Lhen Mooar is right on the border of Jurby and Andreas parishes. Richard died at Andreas on the 17th of December, 1705 and was buried the next day at Jurby. His burial was entered also in the Andreas register. See 1.18 for details of his descendants.

The Chapter Court held on the 28th of June, 1654, at Jurby heard the presentment of Richard Lawson of KK Andreas "for being farming on the Lords Day in tyme of publick worship in ye evening".

In 1662 Richard was one of three men presented to the Andreas Chapter Quest for fishing on a sunday in May. The presentation indicates that Richard was the owner of a fishing boat, probably in partnership with others for in his Will of 1705 he leaves his quarter share of the "old boat" together with his share of "five pair of nets" to his son Edward (544). At the time of his death the boat was possibly in poor state at the time as it is stipulated that his son James was to receive two boards when the wood was broken.

At the Michael Chapter Court held in October of the same year, with John Camaish, Richard swore out a complaint against Michael Christian junior and his wife for cutting firewood on the Lord's Day.

In 1680 the Comaish family of Ballacomaish were in financial straits as they had been unable to pay the Lords Rent for the past three years. Richard evidently lent them fifty shillings and in return was granted the use (mortgage on) of a parcel of Quarterland for a period of fifteen years and a further five years, i.e., until October 1700

Richard had the right to build a house or houses on the land and at the removal, i.e., at the end of the twenty year period when the land was to revert to the Comaish family on the payment of £5.10, the roofs would be Richard's property. At this time, the houses would have been of sod construction. The roof and ridge pole together with any doors would be made of timber and would be the most valuable part of the house and, most importantly, could easily removed to another location. The annual rent (Lord's Rent?) is quoted as 71d. Richard is to pay a Single rent each year to John Elison and in addition is to pay £3 to the widow of John Ratcliffe, apparently another debt of the Comaish family. It seems that Richard assumed a total of £5 10s of Comaish debts and that the Comaish family had an opportunity to reclaim the property during the final five years of the mortgage by repaying this amount.

In 1692 Richard is mentioned in the Composition book with the Comaish family. At this time he is still in possession of the land and his age is given as sixty-two years, which would confirm his year of birth as 1629-30. At his death in 1705 Richard's Will indicates that he was still in possession of the land and had built a house on it.

A bequest in his Will left a quarter of an heifer to John Lawson and a further quarter to each of his first son and daughter. This would imply that John was childless, if not unmarried, at the time of the death. Although it is not stated in the Will, John was most probably his grandson, the son of James (605), and would have been about twenty years old at the time. The final quarter of the heifer was left to Thomas Curphey his nephew, the son of his sister Katherine and Ewan Curghey.

Patrick Christian is mentioned twice in the Will. Patrick was the son, by a previous marriage, of Richard's daughter-in-law, Joney Kaneen, see 1.18.5.1 below. Richard acknowledges that he and his son Edward owe between them nine stooks of corn to Patrick. Further, Edward is left sufficient corn to sow Patrick's croft.

- 1.17.2 Margaret Lawson (625) was born circa 1639. She was alive and apparently unmarried in 1674 when she was appointed, with her brother Richard, supervisor to Ann's underage children.
- 1.17.3 Katherine Lawson (626) was born circa 1642. From her mother's Will, she appears to have been in Ireland in 1670. Katherine died on the 21st of December, 1701, intestate, unmarried and without issue.
- 1.17.4 Ann Lawson (627) was born circa 1645. She married William Killip (see Volume III, 21.1.1) circa 1670. She was buried at Braddan on the 11th of June, 1674. Her Will proved at £10-7s-5d and her minor sons John and Thomas were appointed administrators. See Volume III, 21.2 for details of her descendants.

1.18 The Children of Richard Lawson & Bahee Kewn

The earliest Andreas baptisms are for 1666.

- 1.18.1 Bahee Lawson (446) was born in approximately 1657. She married Thomas Clark on the 19th of May, 1677, at Andreas. She inherited 12s 3d from her mother in 1703. She died in April, 1704.

- I.18.1.1 Thomas Clark (611) was baptized on the 2nd of September, 1646. He married firstly Catherine Kee and secondly Bahee Lawson (446) on the 19th of May, 1677. He died on the 8th of December, 1689.
- I.18.2 James Lawson (605) was born in approximately 1660. He married Catherine Kannen in 1682. There were seven children of the marriage. He followed his father as the miller at Lhen Mooar and was, in turn, succeeded at the mill by his son John. He probably had a second trade of weaving as he left his looms to his second son, Richard, together with instructions that his youngest son, David, was to be taught the trade. In 1695, together with William Curlett, he gave John & Mary Comaish a mortgage of £5-18s-8d on a piece of land known as Bally Marten. It is possible that this adjoined the land that his father, in 1680, had given a mortgage to John & Dorethy Comaish. The following year, with his brother Edward, he purchased a parcel of Quarterland known as Corckan Minan for £2-8s-0d. In 1703 he purchased a piece of Intack land known as Brew Croft from John Keey for £1-4s-0d. He died on the 13th of April, 1712. See I.19 for further details of James and his descendants.
- I.18.2.1 Katherine Kannen (612) was born circa 1660. She married James Lawson in 1682. She died on the 20th of September, 1729. See I.19 for details of her descendants.
- I.18.3 Mary Lawson (606) was born in approximately 1662. She was left 10s in her mother's Will. Her father's Will acknowledged that the debt was still outstanding and she was left an additional two shillings. She married Stephen Cleator circa 1680, see Volume IV, 12.1.1.
- I.18.3.1 There were possibly two children of the marriage. William Cleator, son of Stephen, was baptized in October, 1682, at Andreas. An unnamed female, daughter of Stephen, was baptized on the 27th of December, 1684, at Andreas.
- I.18.4 Jony Lawson (607) was born in approximately 1664. She was left a yard of linen by her mother and a candall by her father. She married John Cowle circa 1685. She was buried on the 1st of July, 1707, at Andreas. See I.43 for details of her descendants.
- I.18.4.1 John Cowle (1847) was born circa 1660. He married Jony Lawson circa 1685. Survived his wife. See I.43 for details of his descendants.
- I.18.5 Edward Lawson (544) was born in approximately 1668. He married Joney Kaneen at Kirk Andreas in June 1701. His mother left him her share of the table in her Will of 1703. From the Ecclesiastical Court records we know he died intestate on the 14th August, 1736. It would seem that his death was unexpected as he was a relatively wealthy man to have died intestate. The record provides us with the names of four of his children and tells us that he was a miller. See I.44 for details of his descendants.

In December 1696, together with his brother James, he purchased a parcel of Quarterland known as Crockan Mian from Henry and Ann Christian for £2 8s 0d, of which 12s was paid at the time.

With his sister Ellinor, he was the major beneficiary under his father's Will of 1705. He inherited the mortgaged land of the Comaish family with a proviso that his sister Ellin was to enjoy a share of it. This land was valued at 70s. Edward appears to have been promised part of the land (to a value of 55s) in his marriage contract. This obligation is acknowledged in his father's Will and the remaining 15s value of the land is left equally between Edward and Ellin. In October 1706 he paid his sister her share of the property (7s 6d). He received a third of his father's sheep (the remaining two thirds going to Ellinor).

He inherited his father's share (a quarter) of "ye old boate", probably a fishing boat as he was also left his father's share of the five pair of nets. It is likely that the boat was in poor condition at the time for there is a proviso that his brother James is to have two boards when the boat is broken up. It is not known who the other owners were.

I.18.5.1 Joney Kaneen (576) was baptized on the 10th of November, 1668, at Andreas, the daughter of Thomas Kaneen. She married firstly [Patrick] Christian some time around 1690, and secondly Edward Lawson in June of 1701 at Andreas. There was one son of the first marriage, Patrick, born in approximately 1700. Her first husband died some time around 1700. Unfortunately there is a gap in the Andreas Parish register for the years 1685 to 1704 so as yet it has not been possible to confirm the date of her first marriage, the birth of Patrick or the death of her first husband. Her Will, by affirmation, states that she died on the 7th of October, 1733. She was buried on the 9th of October at Andreas. See 1.44 for details of her descendants.

I.18.5.2 Patrick Christian (54) was born at Andreas circa 1700. He was confirmed at Andreas on the 2nd of November, 1718, when he is listed as "Patrick Christian, step son of Ned Lawson at ye Lane" (Lhen).

I.18.6 Margaret Lawson (608) was baptized on the 21st of September, 1670, at KK Andreas. She is not mentioned in her mother's Will of 1703 nor in her father's Will of 1705. However, in December of 1706 a Robert Quirk (321) is issuing a claim on her behalf for 9s 6d against the executors of her father's Will. This would indicate that she was still alive at that time and possibly married to Robert Quirk.

I.18.7 Ellinor Lawson (609) was baptized on the 3rd of October, 1673 at KK Andreas. She was known as Nelly. She married Daniel Corlett (1231) on the 15th of December, 1722. She was buried at Jurby on the 10th of May, 1733.

In 1703 she inherited from her mother five pounds and a chest with all her mother's shaped linen and woollen cloth. The money was, evidently, not immediately paid for in her father's Will of 1705 it is acknowledged that she is still owed the five pounds and in settlement of this debt she is left 4 blankets, a cow, an axe and an interest in the mortgaged property. She was to enjoy the use of half the property until such time as her brother Edward paid her forty shillings for her interest and a five shillings for her share of the roof. This debt was discharged by Edward in October 1706. Ellin was also left the poll, presumable the ridge pole of the roof. She inherited two thirds of her father's sheep. She was bequeathed a petticoat by her sister Jane in 1723.

I.18.7.1 Daniel Corlett (1231) was born circa 1673. He married Ellinor Lawson (609) on the 15th of December, 1722. He was buried at Jurby on the 14th of October, 1758.

I.18.8 Jane Lawson (610) was born in approximately 1675. She married firstly to John Wade (1232) and secondly to Daniel Kneale (1234) on the 20th of August, 1709. She was buried on the 20th of December, 1723, at Andreas.

She was left a yard of linen in her mother's Will of 1703 and a blanket in her father's Will of 1705. Her Will of 1724 names her sons Michael and John Wade and her grandson John Wade.

I.19.1 John Lawson (613) was baptized on the 18th of October, 1684, at Andreas with his twin sister, Margaret. He inherited a quarter of an heifer from his grandfather in 1705. His grandfather left two further quarters of the heifer to John's first son and daughter. By his father's Will in 1712, he inherited land called the Crockanon (probably the property purchased by his father and uncle from Henry and Ann Christian and called Crockan Minan) and Caple Vartin and, with his brother Richard, part of a property called Cannells. In 1721 he purchased from William & Mally Cannel a parcel of Quarterland "already in ye possession of ye sd Jon Lawfon & mother whereon his houses are erected". He continued the family business of miller at Lhen Mooar. John married Catherine Tear (see 1.55.4) on the 13th of June, 1713, at Andreas. He died of smallpox on the 25th of October, 1723 and was buried at Andreas the same day. He left three minor children and his widow expecting their fourth child. See 1.20 for details of his descendants.

I.19.2 Margaret Lawson (1012) was baptized on the 18th of October, 1684, at Andreas with her twin brother, John. She married William Radcliffe (see Volume I, 14.4.1) on the 24th of April, 1704, at Andreas. She was buried on the 10th of February, 1724-5, at Andreas. See Volume I, 14.5 for details of her descendants.

I.19.3 Richard Lawson (614) was baptized in August, 1687, at Andreas. He was evidently a weaver as he was left weaving looms in the Will of his father in 1712. Additionally, he was to teach his younger brother, David, the trade of weaving. In his grandfather's Will of 1705 he was left a lamb from any residue. He married Catherine Kneale in approximately 1716. He made and signed a Will on the 25th of May, 1752. He was buried at Andreas on the 30th of May, 1753. See 1.23 for details of his descendants.

Richard appears to have been quite successful in his business life, combining the trades of weaving and fishing. In 1721 he was able to grant a five year mortgage of £9-2s-0d to John & Bahee Camish on a portion of their farm known as the Vole Land. The mortgage appears to have been renewed on a regular basis for it was not until October 1760 that his children acknowledged that the mortgage had been repaid.

In 1729 he was sworn as a member of the Setting Quest which indicates that he had some standing in the community. He appears to have been active in the general opposition to the tithing system then in effect, the subject of widespread dissatisfaction for in 1729 he cited for failing to pay the tithe on a catch of herring that he landed at Douglas. He was sentenced to be imprisoned in St. Germans prison on St. Patrick's Island. As he refused to go peaceably, the Sumner was authorized to employ a soldier to enforce the sentence. It is not known how long Richard spent in gaol.

1.19.3.1 Catherine Kneale (1136) was born in approximately 1690, probably at Andreas. She married Richard Lawson circa 1716. Catherine died on the 21st of February, 1741-2, at Andreas, see Will. See 1.23 for details of her descendants.

1.19.4 Bahee Lawson (615) was born in approximately 1690. She married John Kneal on the 23rd of May, 1730, at Andreas. She was buried on the 5th of October, 1763, at Andreas.

Her Will states he died on the 3rd of October and mentions her only daughter Bahee, her son John (who was off the Island) and her niece Margaret Cleator alias Lawson (see 1.23.5).

1.19.5 James Lawson (1128) was born in approximately 1693. Although he is not mentioned in his father's Will of 1712, James did not die until the 7th of July, 1717, at Andreas. He was a weaver. His Will mentions his brothers John, Richard and David, his sisters Margaret, Bahee and Jony and his mother Catherine. Several debts are mentioned including one for wool on the loom. As no wife is mentioned, it appears that he died unmarried and without issue.

1.19.6 David Lawson (617) was baptized in 1695 at Andreas. David married firstly Eleanor Lace on the 6th of June, 1730, at Andreas and secondly to Catherine Quirk on the 19th of February, 1735-6, at Andreas. David died on the 6th of May, 1777, at Andreas. See 1.26 and 1.39 for details of his descendants.

He was probably a weaver as his elder brother, Richard, was charged in their father's Will to provide training in the weavers trade to David. He was appointed supervisor, with his brother Richard and brother-in-law William Radcliffe, on the death of his brother John in 1724. He was the main beneficiary under his mother's Will in February, 1729. In 1740 David purchased a parcell of land from John & Bahee Camish for the sum of £2-9s-4d situated in the north-west corner of a field known as St. Martin's Chappel.

1.19.6.1 Eleanor Lace (632) was born in approximately 1710, the daughter of Henry Lace of Peel & Ann Crow. She married David Lawson (617) on the 6th of June, 1730, at Andreas. She was buried on the 17th of December, 1735, at Andreas. The Episcopal court sitting in March of 1735-6 noted her death but it was not until the next circuit that a decree was issued naming her only surviving child, William, sole executor. See 1.26 for details of her descendants.

1.19.6.1.1 Henry Lace (2261) was born circa 1685. He married twice: firstly to Ann Crow circa 1710 and Secondly to Elizabeth Christian on the 1st of August, 1719, at Andreas. No other details available.

1.19.6.1.2 Ann Crow (2262) was born circa 1685. She married Henry Lace circa 1700. She died circa 1718 at Andreas. No further details available.

1.19.6.1.3 Elizabeth Christian (2263) was born circa 1695. She married Henry Lace on the 1st of August, 1719, at Andreas. No further details available.

1.19.6.2 Catherine Quirk (1018) was born circa 1710. Her mother was Joney Kenread (5622) who married William (?) Quirk (5621). She married David Lawson on the 19th of February, 1735-6 at Andreas. From her mother's Will (see Volume III) we know Joney died on the 22nd of March, 1743, at Andreas and that Catherine had a sister Ellinor and a brother William. She received five shillings and a blue pettycoat under the Will. She was buried on the 9th of February, 1762, at Andreas. See 1.39 for details of her descendants.

I.19.7 Jony Lawson (616) was born in approximately 1697. She was left a kerchief, a coif and a lamb by her grandmother. She married Daniel Keneen on the 1st of February, 1712, at Andreas. In June of 1725 she and her husband agreed to help support the minor children of her brother John. She was buried at Andreas on the 7th of February, 1760. See her Will (Andreas 40, 1760) and 1.42 for details of her descendants.

I.19.7.I Daniel Keneen (1151) was born circa 1690. He married Joney Lawson on the 1st of February, 1712, at Andreas. Died 1734, see Will 1734-021. See 1.42 for details of his descendants.

I.20.1 James Lawson (1272) was baptized on the 29th of May, 1714, at Andreas. He married Isabel Moore the 26th of May, 1739, at Andreas. He was buried on the 15th of August, 1794, at Andreas. See 1.21 for details of his descendants.

He is named in his mother's Will 1744. In 1749 the Andreas Parish Register notes that James is holding bequests totalling £7-10-0 in behalf of the Parish. His Will is dated 1st of February, 1794.

I.20.1.I Isabel Moore (1137) was born circa 1720 at Andreas. She married James Lawson on the 26th of May, 1739, at Andreas. She was buried on the 6th of June, 1806, at Andreas. See 1.21 for details of her descendants.

I.20.2 John Lawson (1826) was born circa 1717 at Andreas. A baptism has not yet been located, but he is mentioned as the second son in his father's Will of 1724, in his Aunt's Will of 1734 and his mother's Will of 1744.

I.20.3 Richard Lawson (1273) was baptized on the 17th of September, 1720, at Andreas. He is named in his Aunt's Will of 1734 and in his mother's Will of 1744. His mother's Will charges her relation to take care of Richard. Richard married Christian Quark on the 9th of October, 1748, at Braddan.

I.20.3.I Christian Quark (1827) was born circa 1720, probably at Braddan. She married firstly John Kelly (Clerk to the Douglas Chapple) and secondly Richard Lawson on the 9th of October, 1748, at Braddan. She died of smallpox and was buried at Braddan on the 19th of October, 1750. There appears to have been no issue of either marriage.

I.20.4 Catherine Lawson (1274) was baptized on the 10th of January, 1723-4, at Andreas, some two months after the death of her father. She married Gilbert Kermode at Andreas on the 15th of June, 1746. She was buried at Andreas on the 5th of February, 1793.

In 1734 her aunt, Elizabeth Martin als Tear, left her various items of clothing and the sum of £10 that was to be paid on the death of her uncle, John Martin. Her uncle died in 1754 and the legacy was paid. Her husband acknowledged receipt of the legacy on the 7th of March, 1755.

- I.20.4.I Gilbert Kermode (1275) was born circa 1724. He married Catherine Lawson at Andreas on the 15th of June, 1746. There was at least one son of the marriage, John, baptized on the 24th of September, 1762, at Andreas.

At the 1841 census for Andreas there is an Elizabeth Lawson aged 35-39, a female servant living at the home of John Kneale at Regaby. She has not been found in the 1851 census. In 1861 she was living at Old Road, West Sulby and her age was given as 62. She died in 1868 and was buried at Sulby on the 11th of February.
- I.33.5 Jane Lawson (1049) was baptized on the 30th of Many, 1802, at Andreas. She married Stephen Corlett on the 26th of March, 1825, at Bride. The family lived in Lezayre, where nine of her children were born, until around 1843 when they moved to Henbury in Cheshire, where her last two children were born. The family emigrated to New Zealand in 1850. Jane died on the 23rd of December, 1877, at Riccarton, South Island, New Zealand. See 1.34 for details of her descendants.
- I.33.5.1 Stephen Corlett (1130) was baptized on the 24th of September, 1797, at Jurby, the son of William Corlett and Anne Cowley, who were married on the 1st of May, 1785, at Jurby. This was the first marriage of William. See 1.34 for details of his descendants.
- I.33.6 John Lawson (1050) was baptized on the 8th of January, 1804, at Lezayre. Probably died in infancy. No further details available.
- I.33.7 John Lace Lawson (1051) was baptized on the 1st of September, 1805, at Lezayre. Not found in the 1841 census. No further details available.
- I.33.8 Daniel Lawson (1052) was baptized on the 1st of March, 1807, at Lezayre. Not found in the 1841 census. No further details available.

I.35.1 Thomas Lawson (2408) was baptised on the 25th of November, 1792, at Jurby. He married Margaret Mason (see 1.59.5) on the 26th of March, 1816, at Bride. He was buried on the 11th of May, 1853, at Bride, when his age was recorded as 63 years. See 1.36 below for details of his descendants.

At the census of 1841 (Bride 2-15) he was living at Glentrin with his wife and teenage children, Thomas and Mary. His occupation was given as weaver. At the 1851 census (Bride 2-62) he is living with his wife and daughter, Mary, in Bride and is described as a farm labourer.

I.35.2 James Lawson (2409) was baptised on the 14th of May, 1797, at Jurby. He married Eleanor Callow on the 5th of June, 1819, at Lonan. He and his family were living at Balla Shanne, Andreas in 1841. They emigrated to Ashippan, Wisconsin, before the census of 1851. He was still alive at the census of 1870.

I.35.2.I Eleanor Callow (2410) was baptised on the 13th of November, 1798, at Lonan, the daughter of John Callow. She married James Lawson on the 5th of June, 1819, at Lonan.

I.35.2.I.I John Callow (2417) was born circa 1770.

I.36.1 John Lawson (1131) was baptized on the 24th of July, 1816, at Bride. John trained as a blacksmith. He married Catherine Cowling circa 1840, though the marriage record has not yet been traced. Sometime before 1841 the family moved to Hull where their son John was born. By the end of 1845 we find the family living at Brighton, Sussex, where their son Henry was baptized on the 9th of November, 1845, at the church of St. Peter. The family moved again, for the 1851 census shows them living at 4, Little Canterbury Place, Lambeth, where their daughter Catherine was born in 1852. They moved once more, to Spain, where their son William was born. By 1861 the family had returned to the Isle of Man and were living at Bride. See 1.37 for details of his descendants.

I.36.1.1 Catherine Cowling (1726) was born circa 1816. She married John Lawson circa 1840. No further details are available. See 1.37 for details of her descendants.

I.36.2 Thomas Mason Lawson (1132) was baptized on the 18th of September, 1825, at Bride. In 1841 he was living with his parents at Glentrain, Bride. He married Ann Looney (see 6.3.6) on the 28th of February, 1851, at Maughold. The 1851 census shows him living with his brother-in-law, Edward Looney, at Maughold Village, when he is described as a blacksmith. Not found in the 1861 census.

I.36.3 Robert Lawson (1133) was baptized with his twin sister on the 3rd of October, 1828, at Bride. He has not been found in the 1841 census for the Island, but the 1851 census shows him living with his brother, John, at 4, Little Canterbury Place, Lambeth, at which time his occupation was given as shoemaker.

I.36.4 Mary Lawson (1134) was baptized with her twin brother on the 3rd of October, 1828, at Bride. In 1841 she was living at Glentrain with her parents (Bride 1-15). At the 1851 census she was unmarried and living with her parents at Bride (Bride 2-31-62). No further details available.

Number & Name		Type & Birthdate	Place/Notes

1728	Henry	B 9th Nov 1845	Brighton, Sussex
1729	Catherine	P 1852	London
1730	William	P 1855	Caracas, Spain

I.37.1 John Lawson (1727) was born on the 8th of August, 1841, at Hull. In the 1861 census he is described as a blacksmith. A birth certificate for John Lawson born 8th of August, 1841, at Spring Street, Hull, lists the parents as John Lawson & Elizabeth May. However, the father's occupation is given as "cow keeper", which seems to indicate the wrong parents.

- I.37.2 Thomas Lawson (5921) was born on the 4th of December, 1843 at Hull. He does not appear with the rest of the family in the 1861 census.
- I.37.3 Henry Lawson (1728) was baptized on the 9th of November, 1845, at St. Peter, Brighton, Sussex. No further details are available.
- I.37.4 Catherine Lawson (1729) was born in 1852 at London. No further details are available. (Reference Lambeth 1d 295 March 1853.)
- I.37.5 William Lawson (1730) was born in 1855 at Caracas, Spain. There is a baptism on the 26th of October, 1855 of William, son of John Lawson & Catherine Cowell. In 1861 he was living with his parents in Bride. By 1881 he had become a machine and engine fitter and was boarding, unmarried, with James & Mary Airey at 16, Middlesborough Road, Normansly in Middlesbrough, Yorkshire.

- I.39.1 John Lawson (1019) was baptized on the 28th of November, 1736, at Andreas. He inherited part of Martin's Chappell by his mother's Will of 1762 and the remaining part on the death of his father in 1777. He does not appear to have married.
- I.39.2 A daughter was baptized on the 20th of September, 1738, at Andreas. She has not been positively identified and may not have survived infancy.
- I.39.3 Bahee Lawson (1020) was baptized on the 21st of September, 1740, at Andreas. She was mentioned in her mother's Will of 1762 and in her father's Will of 1777. This latter Will indicates that she was married by that time but does not give the name of her husband. There is a marriage recorded on 15th of December, 1771, at Andreas of Bahee to James Corkill. She was buried at Maughold on the 18th of April, 1815. See 1.40 for details of her descendants.
- I.39.3.1 James Corkill (5913) was born circa 1740 at Maughold. He married Bahee Lawson on the 15th of December, 1771, at Andreas. See 1.40 for details of his descendants.
- I.39.4 Ann Lawson (1021) was baptized on the 7th of January, 1743-4, at Andreas. She was mentioned in her mother's Will of 1762. Ann married Thomas Fargher on the 19th of January, 1773, at Andreas. She was mentioned in her father's Will of 1777 and her husband was named as Executor. She was buried at Andreas on the 23rd of July, 1823. See 1.41 for details of her descendants.
- I.39.4.1 Thomas Fargher (2177) was born circa 1745. He married Ann Lawson on the 19th of January, 1773, at Andreas. See 1.41 for details of his descendants.
- I.39.5 James Lawson (1022) was baptized on the 7th of July, 1746, at Andreas. He received ten shillings in his mother's Will of 1762 but was not mentioned in his father's Will of 1777.
- I.39.6 Margaret Lawson (1023) was baptized on the 18th of February, 1748-9 at Andreas. She was mentioned in her mother's Will of 1762. Margaret married James Kirmeen on the 17th of December, 1769, at Maughold (see Volume V, 5.2.3). She was mentioned in her father's Will of 1777. See Volume V 5.3 for details of her descendants.
- I.39.7 Richard Lawson (1024) was baptized on the 20th of September, 1754, at Andreas. He lived just over two months, being buried on the 4th of December, 1754, at Andreas.

580	Edward	B	22nd Apr 1711	Andreas
541	James	B	2nd Jan 1715	Andreas

- I.44.1 Richard Lawson (577) was baptized at Kirk Andreas in August of 1703. He married firstly Ann Caine, see 11.5.3, on the 30th of November, 1729, at Jurby, and secondly Lenora Christian (1570) on the 19th of November, 1752, at Braddan. He was buried at Braddan on the 2nd of April, 1758. See 5.3 for details of his descendants (there were no issue of the second marriage).

Sometime between January 1732 (when their second child was baptized) and December 1734 (when their third child was baptized) the family moved from Andreas to Douglas. His Will, by affirmation, mentions five of his children, so it seems likely that three of the children (Edward, Hester and Anne) had died by this time. Although his occupation is not given in the Will, the baptismal record of his third son, John, states that he was a miller. Judging by the contents of the Will, he must have been successful in his business as he had provided apprenticeships for his three youngest sons (the eldest son, Richard was evidently living away from home at this time). After leaving an auger and adze to his brother James, Richard charged his brother-in-law David Caine and his brother James to care for the three youngest children.

- I.44.2 Ann Lawson (578) was baptized at Kirk Andreas on the 27th of June, 1705. She is mentioned in her mother's Will of 1733 when she inherited equally with her sister Bahee all her mother's "shapd linen and wollen cloathes". Presumably this referred to cloth that had been made up into clothing, or shaped, as distinct from "whole" cloth which was direct from the mill. She married Thomas Corlett on the 13th of April, 1725. There is a burial for Ann Corlett alias Lawson on the 23rd of February, 1782 at Jurby. See 1.45 for details of her descendants.

- I.44.2.1 Thomas Corlett (1841) was born circa 1700. He married Ann Lawson on the 13th of April, 1725, at Andreas. See 1.45 for details of his descendants.

- I.44.3 Bahee Lawson (579) was baptized at Kirk Andreas on the 9th of January, 1707 and confirmed at Jurby on the 17 of October, 1725. In addition to the her share of the shapd cloathes mentioned in her mother's Will, she also received a legacy of forty shillings, apparently the outstanding balance of a marriage contract. She married Andrew Quirk on the 27th of July, 1729. She was buried on the 25th of February, 1773, at Andreas. See 1.46 for details of her descendants.

- I.44.3.1 Andrew Quirk (1155) was baptized on the 29th of November, 1711. He died on the 21st of December, 1784. See 1.46 for details of his descendants.

- I.44.4 Edward Lawson (580) was baptized at Kirk Andreas on the 22nd of April, 1711. He died of smallpox shortly before his third birthday and was buried at KK Andreas on the 2nd of February, 1713/4.

- I.44.5 James Lawson (541) was baptized at Kirk Andreas on the 2nd of January, 1714-5. He married Catherine Killey at Onchan Parish Church on 29th of April, 1740, see Volume I, 12.3.2. He died on the 24th of August, 1790, and was buried on the 26th at Onchan. See 5.13 for details of his descendants.

In 1733 he was appointed his mother's sole executor. It is through Catherine that any possible "Royal" connection may be established. Their first two children were born in Onchan, but by May, 1744, James and his young family have moved to Douglas where the remaining six children were born. James appears to have been a successful wheelwright and joiner. He lived and worked in Drumgold Street at a property known as "Parr's Rent, No 3", which consisted of a house and a garden. In 1784 he bought a second house, known as "Finch's Rent No 65" for £42 from Paul and Mary Kelly.

I.47.1 Isabel Lawson (676) was baptized on the 25th of November, 1628, at Braddan.

Only the father's name is recorded at the baptism. She was possibly a child of James Lawson's second marriage. It should be noted that she was baptized at Braddan while other documents relating to the early Lawsons put the family in the North.

She possibly married a Teare with children Edward, Ann and two other daughters.

I.47.2 Catherine Lawson (1127) was born circa 1631. She married Ewan Curghey circa 1651. She died on the 4th of December, 1675, at Maughold. See 1.48 for details of her descendants.

In her Will mention is made of a total of four sons, a daughter and a daughter-in-law. Her eldest son was Thomas Kewin who married Elizabeth, the daughter-in-law mentioned in the Will. It has not yet been established whether Thomas was the son of a first marriage or if he was illegitimate.

Two other sons, Robert and Thomas Curghey, and her daughter Margaret are left bequests in the Will. Her husband Ewan and "his son Joh:" are appointed executors. It is assumed that John was also Catherine's son and that he was at least twenty-one at the time.

I.47.2.1 Ewan Curghey (1719) was born circa 1630. A miller, he married Catherine Lawson circa 1651, probably in Ramsey/Maughold. He died on the 19th of October, 1683, at Lezayre. Ewan was a witness in 1655 to the Will of Richard, Catherine's half-brother. See 1.48 for details of his descendants.

I.49.1 There was possibly a son, James, who was a residual legatte in the Will of John in 1818. He has not yet been further identified.

I.49.2 Ann Lawson (1829) was baptized on the 20th of September, 1778, at Andreas. She was left 5/- in her father's Will of 1818 and half of her mother's goods in 1835. She was buried at Andreas on the 28th of April, 1846, when her age was recorded as 68 years.

I.49.3 John Lawson (1830) was baptized on the 18th of February, 1781, at Andreas. He was buried on the 12th of November, 1781, at Andreas.

I.49.4 Joney Lawson (1831) was baptized on the 26th of December, 1783, at Andreas. She married John Quayle on the 27th of June, 1812, at Andreas. She was buried at Andreas on the 1st of September, 1858, when her age was recorded as 75 years. See Volume IV, 21.30 for details of her descendants.

In later life she seems to have been known by Judith, the English equivalent of her name. In 1841 she was living with her husband and unmarried son John at Balla Lhaane, Andreas. In 1851 she is living with her husband, unmarried daughter and grand-son in Andreas near the Lhen.

She was left 5/- by her father in 1818, at which time she was called Judy. She was left £3 by her mother in 1835, while her daughter, Eleanor was left 10/-.

- I.49.5 Catherine Lawson (1832) was baptized on the 26th of November, 1786, at Andreas. She married Hugh Cowley on the 3rd January, 1807, at Andreas, see Volume III, . She died between the censuses of 1841 and 1851. No burial has been located. See 16.15 for details of her descendants.

She was left 5/- by her father in 1818.

- I.49.6 John Lawson (1833) was baptized on the 7th of January, 1789, at Andreas. He was not mentioned in his father's Will of 1818.

- I.49.7 William Lawson (1834) was baptized on the 10th of July, 1792, at Andreas. He was left 20/- by his father in 1818 and inherited all the lands from his mother in 1835 as well as being her Executor.

I.50 WILLIAM LAWSON—1839

- I.50.1 William Lawson (5299) was baptized on the 10th of February, 1839, at Maughold, under the name Corkill, the son of William Lawson and Catherine Corkill. See Volume V, 3.24.5 for details of his mother. He was buried at Maughold on the 14th of March, 1893.

In the census of 1851 he is living, aged 12, on the farm of his grandmother, Catherine Corkill, at Curragh Dhoo. In 1861 he was working for Rev. Bowyer Harrison, vicar of Maughold.

He married Elizabeth Christian on the 3rd of June, 1865, at Bride.

In 1871 he was employed as a coachman. He and his family were living at Glencrutchery, Onchan. The name of his employer is not given. It seem likely that shortly after the census the family moved to Ramsey for the account books of the Thornhill Estate (a 25 acre estate in Lezayre built in 1844 by William Callister) show William Lawson employed as a coachman from 1872 to 1887. He was paid £25 a year and received an allowance for tea, milk and potatoes. The 1881 census shows him living, with his family, at 2, Barn Houses, Lezayre, probably part of the estate buildings. In 1891 he was still employed as a coachman. He was living at Clucas Cottages, Ramsey, with his wife and unmarried daughter, Catherine.

- I.50.I.I Elizabeth Christian (5301) was baptized on the 6th of March, 1844, at Bride, the daughter of Daniel Christian (b: 1811) and Leonora Boyd (b: circa 1815). She married William Lawson on the 3rd of June, 1865, at Bride. In 1901, a widow, she was living at 4, Tower Road, Ramsey and employed as a laundress. She was buried at Maughold on the 29th of April, 1933, when her age was recorded as 89 years.

- I.50.I.I.I Daniel Christian (5303) was baptized on the 20th of January, 1811, at Bride the son of Patrick Christian and Elizabeth Kinread. He married Leonora Boyd on the 13th of November, 1832, at Bride.

- I.50.I.I.2 Leonora Boyd was baptized on the 19th of February, 1803, at Malew, the daughter of William Boyde and Ann Gell. She married Daniel Christian on the 13th of November, 1832, at Bride.
